

Is it your turn or my turn?

Prepared by Rhonda Johnson, HECIS - 45877277 - May 2004

Sometimes people have things that are not mine

Sometimes people have toys

or books that I like.

When I see things that I like

I can ask

"Can I have a turn?"

If they say "yes", I can take it

I can say

"Thank you"

If they say "No"

then I cannot take it

I can then say

'OKAY'

and play with other things

My mum, dad, teacher and friends are happy

When I ask to have a turn

I feel happy

myself because I can ask for a turn and wait

1

for a turn if I need to.
